EXPLOSION IN BROOKLYN IS BEING PROBED

New York (AP) — A fire on a Brooklyn pier set off an explosion yesterday that shook the city for miles around. Nine died in the disaster and 247 suffered injuries. Flames still flickered in the red-hot ruins of the pier today. Fire officials will launch a full-scale probe of the 10-million-dollar blaze.

A dock worker said the fire started about 3:15 p. m. in a pile of foam rubber on the big pier, longest marine terminal in the city. Minute by minute the flames ate toward a mountain of explosive cargo — paint, lacquer, rubber cement, chemicals and fuels.

Firemen, dock workers, school boys and other spectators rushed to the scene — unaware of the impending peril.

Suddenly a sheet of flame shot skyward. The blast ripped off the pier shed's metal and glass roof and showered the area with a deadly hail of fragments.

The shock radiated 85 miles from the explosion. Windows were shattered five miles away.

Chunks of white-hot steel weighing as much as 50 pounds arched over the waterfront.

The blast killed three boys in their tracks.

The dock workers and three other men were also killed. One was decapitated.

Screaming ambulances raced away with the scores of injured, many of them spectators. Hospitals were soon jammed.

The pier — long as six football fields — just into New York Harbor. The towers of lower Manhattan's financial district stand a short way across the water.

Black smoke churned and billowed 3,000 feet into the blue sky after the explosion.

The shower of flaming fragments set fire to a truck and car several blocks away.

Plaster cracked and fell and windows shattered in the neighborhood. The worst damage was (Turn to Page Ten)

Former Head of Forest & Water Dept. Is Dead

Clearfield, Pa. (AP) — G. Albert Stewart, 66, former state secretary of forests and waters, died last night in Clearfield Hospital of a heart attack.

Stewart was stricken with a heart attack Sunday night at his hunting camp in Penfield Mountain and was rushed to Clearfield Hospital in an ambulance.

He had been in poor health for the past year although he remained active as executive secretary of the Central Pennsylvania Open Pit Mining Assn.

Mahany Confident He Will Win Floor Leader Post Over Berger

Harrisburg (AP) — Senator Mahany (R-Crawford) says he feels quite confident he will be re-elected late today to a third term as Republican floor leader despite opposition from Senator Berger (R-Potter).

At the same time Mahany made clear that he pins much of his hopes on support from backers of Senator Taylor, who himself is seeking re-election to a seventh term as Senate president pro tempore.

The Titusville lawmaker admitted that "Senator Taylor has a lot to do with" his expression of "confidence" on winning floor leadership when the 27 Republican senators caucus at 4 p. m. to determine their organization for the coming session which opens New Year's Day.

Berger made it clear that he is still in the race for the floor leadership post but declined to make any predictions.

The GOP will hold a 27-23 majority in the Senate when the 1957 session gets underway. They gained one seat in the Nov. 6 election to increase the slim margin they held in the 1955-56 session.

Asked last night on a television panel show WTPA, whether he thought Berger, if defeated for floor leadership would seek reelection as caucus chairman, Mahany said he understood Berger did not want the chairmanship.

Berger, associated with the faction in the party led by G. Mason Owlett, former national committee man, recently abandoned ideas of opposing Taylor.

Former Warren Resident One Of Eight Heart Attack Victims On Opening Day of Deer Season

A former Warren resident was one of eight Pennsylvania hunters who dropped dead of a heart attack on the opening day of deer season Monday.

David E. Callahan, aged 49, of RD Bradford was hunting near Marshburg in McKean County. The victim was field superintendent for Manufacturers Gas Company in the Olean, Bradford and Warren area. He made numerous trips to Warren and was well known here.

Three hunters were also shot accidentally and killed opening day. Charles Verbal of Clearfield, RD 1, was shot to death when a woman hunter accidentally discharged her gun while entering his car to drive home for the day. State Troopers identified the woman as Mrs. Floyd Swartzwelder, South Hampton Twp.

Police said Frank Barnatsky, 16, of Sullivan County accidentally shot and killed his hunting companion, Robert Hembury, 16, of the same county while the two were hunting near Dushore.

Samuel K. Thompson, 33, of West Middlesex, Mercer County, was accidentally shot to death while helping another hunter who became ill while hunting in Elk County.

The other heart victims in the state Monday were Romanus Kelsch, 31, of Bally, Berks County; Frederick Wallack, 47, of Toledo, Ohio, hunting near Guffey, McKean County; Antone Frederick, 54, of Baltimore, hunting in Bedford County; J. Ashton Lodge, 78, of Ardmore, hunting near Renovo; also Frederick Gift, 52, of Birdsboro, Lloyd P. Wescott of Linesville and Lester Lenker, 60, of Millersburg.

Another hunter dropped dead in the woods today to bring the death toll to 13 by Tuesday noon, including three shot and ten heart victims. Found dead in Schuylkill today was Warren Danton, 60, of Pine Grove.

In Warren County four "lost" hunters were reported to State Troopers. All the strays were back in the fold by nightfall, however.

Game Protector David Titus reported "too many" violations of the game laws in his bailiwick. Both Titus and William Overturf, protector at Youngsville, noted the ideal hunting weather and commented that the kill seemed fairly heavy.

A light tracking snow was on the ground making the brown-coated animals stand out and enabling them to be tracked with ease.

Thirteen students of the 186 out at Warren High School, including one girl, were among the successful hunters and huntresses Monday. The distaff nimrod was Sue (Turn to Page Ten)

Red Soldiers In Budapest Fire Upon Women

Budapest (AP) — Russian soldiers opened fire in Heroes' Square today when thousands of women pressed forward to lay wreaths on the tomb of Hungary's unknown soldier.

A woman was hit by one of the several shots fired and was taken to a hospital. Her condition was described as not serious.

Eyewitnesses said the shooting broke out when the women "became unruly" while trying to force themselves past Russian soldiers to lay flowers on the tomb — exactly one month after the Russian military crackdown on the Hungarian revolution.

Christmas Wreath Plant In New York Town Burns

New Albany (AP) — A roaring fire in this tiny highway community destroyed a Christmas wreath plant and the 100-year-old town hall today. It sent hundreds of wreaths up in smoke and paralyzed the industrial life of most of New Albany's 500 citizens.

The flames leveled the main manufacturing plant of the Rynveldt Wreath Co., the firm's large storage barn and the steeped two-story town hall. All were wooden structures.

Thirty-five persons in the building — most of them women — fled to the street, just off U. S. Route 220 in the heart of New Albany's two-block business district. Harry Kingsley, a paint room worker, attempted vainly to smother the flames, and then ran, screaming the alarm.

Moore said there was no question but that the assault on Turner, who had said he would escort the Negroes back to classes whenever they wished to return, resulted from his assistance to the Negroes.

Moore said about 50 persons heckled the Negroes when they entered the school. He said no attempt was made to molest them other than the catcalling and booing. The Negroes fled in to classes at the main entrance.

The Negroes had been absent since last Tuesday because of "abuse" they said they had been receiving.

Principal D. J. Brittain Jr. reported a large crowd of white persons congregated outside the building as the Negroes fled in.

EXECUTION DATE

Harrisburg (AP) — Gov. Leader today fixed week of Monday, Feb. 11, for the execution of Glenn Arthur Leamer, Blair County, in the slaying of his grandfather, Samuel Jacob Leamer on Nov. 2, 1955.

Brookville Matricide May Be Brought Here for Observation

Brookville (AP) — Dist. Atty. William McKnight of Jefferson County says he will request a mental examination for a 16-year-old boy accused of killing his mother with a shotgun.

The defendant, Samuel Lavella of Crenshaw, about 20 miles northeast of here, pleaded guilty to a murder charge in the slaying of his 38-year-old mother, Mrs. Frank Lavella, in the family home Saturday night.

"I'm preparing a petition to have the boy taken to the Warren State Hospital for observation and examination," McKnight told a newsman. "I will present the petition to the court in a few days. If the boy is found legally sane he will probably be tried on a murder charge in February. If he is found insane he will be treated and tried later when it is determined he is legally sane."

The district attorney added that the move is "merely precautionary."

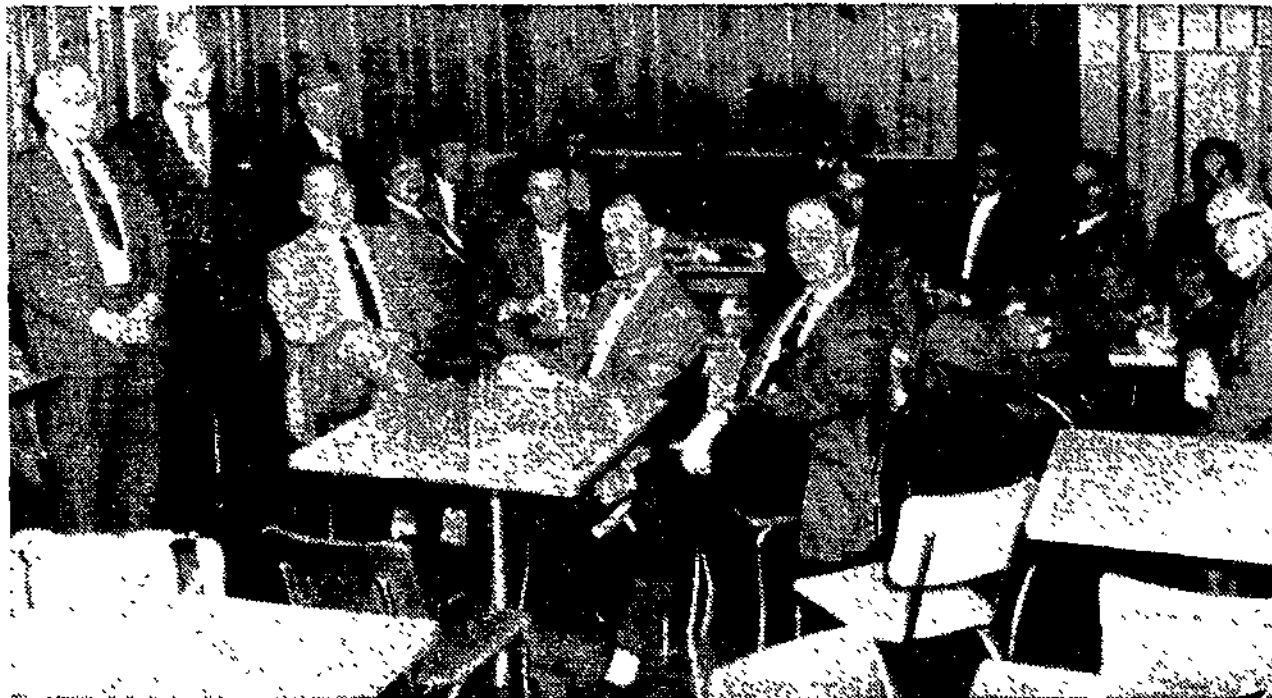

Meanwhile, Lavella is being held in the Jefferson County Jail. His mother's body was found by hunters Sunday in a wooded section about 13 miles from her home.

State police said young Lavella at first told his father, a tavern owner, that his mother had left home after receiving a telephone call.

Later, police said, the youth admitted shooting his mother with a shotgun and transporting her body in the family station wagon to the wooded section.

Police quoted him as saying his mother scolded him for cleaning a rifle in the absence of his father. Police said he then picked up a shotgun in anger and fired at her.

Committee Maps Plans for Auto Show

An important meeting to develop final details for the 40th annual Auto Show, found representatives of most local automobile dealers meeting with the general committee at The American Legion Home to draw display positions for the tremendous event. The wide expanse of Beatty school cafeteria will be sectioned off to provide ample space for each 1957 car to be effectively shown. The show runs two days and features many special events in addition to the thrill of a close-up look at motorized miracles. Timesphoto by Saylor.

M'Arthur's Nephew Named Ambassador To Japan by Ike

Augusta, Ga. (AP) — President Eisenhower today picked Douglas MacArthur II, now State Department counselor, to be ambassador to Japan.

MacArthur, a nephew of Gen. Douglas MacArthur, will succeed John M. Allison in Tokyo. Allison will return to the United States for reassignment.

Both MacArthur and Allison are career diplomats with long service.

The President, acting at his vacation headquarters here, gave MacArthur a recess appointment. A formal nomination will be submitted to the Senate when Congress reconvenes in January.

Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerty also announced:

1. Eisenhower will discuss the administration's 1957 legislative program and the foreign policy picture with congressional leaders in Washington Dec. 31 and New Year's Day.

2. Eisenhower conferred about 90 minutes this morning with Budget Director Percival Brundage. They discussed sections of the federal budget for the fiscal year starting July 1. It will go to Congress next month.

Brundage arranged to return to Washington later in the day.

MacArthur, a nephew of Gen. Douglas MacArthur, will succeed John M. Allison in Tokyo.

The 47-year-old MacArthur has served in the $20,000-a-year counselor's post since 1953. As ambassador, he will receive $27,500.

Addressed to Ralph E. Sires, chairman of the Warren County Chapter, the communication further states that every American wants to send help, and the American Red Cross has been joined by other Red Cross societies throughout the world in rushing medical supplies, food, blankets and other necessities to the stricken area.

The Red Cross is the international agency that is now moving supplies into Hungary, and with refugees pouring into Austria by the thousands, the Austrian government has turned to the Red Cross for aid. More than 83,000 refugees have already crossed the border.

As expenses continue to mount, additional funds must be raised to meet the increasing need for essentials.

Among chapters receiving letters from the national chairman are the Corry office with a $412 quota, or a donation of five cents per person.

Warren county oversubscribed its quota of $1300 during the New England floods, when the amount of $4,000 was donated by generous citizens, and local officials hope the present quota of $1200, or eight cents per person for every person living in the borough, will not only be met but surpassed.

County Is Asked To Donate $1,200 For Hungarian Relief

In a letter received by local Red Cross headquarters, the quota assigned by the American Red Cross as the amount for this office to meet, has been given as $1200, in a campaign to raise $5,000,000 for Hungarian Relief.

Arrangements for funeral services were incomplete at press time and will be announced later, along with a complete obituary.

Known to have had a heart condition for some time, Mr. Morrison was found seated in a chair, but already dead, when firemen reached the home just before 11:30 a. m.

U. N. Delegation Reported Split On Hungary's Ouster

United Nations, N. Y. (AP) — Non-Communist U. N. delegates were reported split today over whether to press for the ouster of Hungary's delegation to the General Assembly if the Budapest government persists in barring U. N. observers.

Some diplomats were said to feel the only way to get action from the Communists would be a concerted move to reject the Hungarians' credentials. Others feared such a step might create a dangerous precedent.

The expulsion move—brewing for the past week—gained momentum today.

U. N. Delegation Reported Split On Hungary's Ouster

By TOM HOGE

Portsmouth, Ohio (AP) — Portsmouth City Council last night adopted a resolution declaring an extraordinary emergency exists as a result of the lack of telephone service here since October 15.

The resolution demanded immediate restoration of service by the struck Ohio Consolidated Telephone Co. and it authorized City Manager Robert E. Layton to request that the Ohio National Guard be sent here if he finds local police unable to maintain law enforcement.

Mayor Harold Frecka and Layton agreed, however, that the guard would not be requested unless a majority of the Council agrees that it is needed.

Layton and Acting Police Chief Albert Bailey asked council to declare the emergency. The declaration gave Layton authorization to work policemen more than 40 hours a week in a new training program under direction of the state highway patrol.

Rotarians Launch 3rd Annual Campaign for Donations to County Probation Association

Publicity release from the Warren County Probation Association: The third annual campaign for donations to the Permanent Endowment Fund of the Warren County Probation Association was started at the regular meeting of the Warren Rotary Club held Monday noon at the YWCA.

To give the members of the Rotary Club some practical working knowledge of how the program of the Warren County Probation Association is progressing, and as a basis for this year's campaign for contributions to the Endowment Fund, the Club's program at Monday's meeting consisted of a follow-up report by A. J. McDonnell, Warren County Probation Officer for Boys. This report explained the general philosophy and aims of the Juvenile Court and the Probation Officer. Mr. McDonnell also told the Club of some of the progress which had been made during the sixteen months since the Warren County Commissioners appointed him Probation Officer for Boys. At the two previous meetings of the Rotary Club, a list of all those who made gifts to the Association's Endowment Fund in 1954 and 1955 was passed around. Each Rotarian chose two prospects from the list, and a third prospect was assigned to him. On Monday each member present at the meeting was given cards for himself and his three prospects. As there were nearly 25 members absent, that many of the Club members being avid deer hunters, the balance of the cards will be distributed at next Monday's meeting.

Judge Alexander C. Flick, Jr., Chairman of the Youth Committee of the Warren Rotary Club, reported that 43 different organizations, such as PTA's, church groups, service clubs, fraternal organizations and Veterans organizations had contributed to the fund last year and would be solicited by mail. He also pointed out that the 1956 campaign would be extended beyond the first of the year to accommodate those persons who might want to make gifts in the calendar year 1957. It was also reported that $838.40 had already been donated in the 1956 campaign. Judge Flick wound up the program at Monday's meeting by telling the members of the Rotary Club that a representative of the Pennsylvania Department of Welfare was impressed with Mr. McDonnell's academic training for his job, believing his qualifications were the highest of any Probation Officer for Boys in Pennsylvania, and after hearing his report the members of the Rotary Club would no doubt agree that the practical training and qualifications of Mr. McDonnell were also very high.

Donations to the Permanent Endowment Fund of the Warren County Probation Association may be made by sending a check to the Court House, or to E. C. Rasmussen, Treasurer, at the Warren National Bank.

Speaker Clarifies Statements In Talk About Seneca Indians

17 Buchanan St.
Warren, Penn'a
December 1, 1955

To the Editor
Warren Times-Mirror

Sir: In your report of a recent talk before the local Kiwanis Club, I fear I was put in the position of an authority having access to "inside" information. I disclaim, as I did then, being an authority on either the Kinzua Dam or Indian Affairs.

I would like to clarify a few points that could lead to the embarrassment of all parties concerned, including myself.

1. The Pickering Treaty did not create the Seneca Nation, it was made with it. With the signing of the treaty, the Senecas ceded claims to all lands except those it now occupies as the Allegany and Cattaraugus reservations in the State of New York.

2. As to the allocation of funds for the defense of their territories against any encroachment on any level I made the following statement: "I understand they are prepared to defend their land and have allocated $100,000 for that purpose. If this be so, they could put up quite a battle." I did not intend this to be an authoritative statement.

3. I gave the opinion of one influential Seneca that he might be able to go along with the idea of relinquishing some of the land were it not for the government request for an easement on all land that would supposedly be flooded once in 400 years which would extend all the way to Salamanca. This opinion was given with the idea that the Indians could be allowed to occupy the area in question and that some type of flood relief would not be burdensome once in 400 years. However, the Senecas will act on the decisions made in council and as a people. Your reference to the "tribe" being willing to sell land up to Red House is misleading. That location entered the discussion as the point near which the reservoir would reach when full.

I request that you print this letter in the hope of forestalling any possible misunderstanding.

Sincerely,
We Witt C. Dickson.

ARMSTRONG AT JAMESTOWN

An enthusiastic audience that more than filled Jamestown High School auditorium Monday night wildly cheered Louis "Satchmo" Armstrong and his All Stars from the time they opened with "Sleepy Time Down South" to the last request number that ended the program. Appearance of the Armstrong All Stars was sponsored by members of the Jamestown Optimist Club for benefit of their Boys' Work fund. It was the 11th annual show presented by the group. The first half of the program was strictly of the ad lib type, with each number of the band and vocalist roundly applauded. Remainder of the program was devoted almost entirely to numbers requested from the audience which found equal favor.

ANNUAL VARIETY SHOW

An excellent program has been arranged for the annual Variety Show to be staged in the auditorium at the Warren State Hospital Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, with various outstanding entertainers from Warren and neighboring towns on the bill. The entertainment is not open to the public.

COFFEE PRICES DOWN

An Associated Press dispatch says three national brands of vacuum-packed coffee are selling for three cents less per pound in most chain stores in the Pittsburgh district today. The price cut, effective yesterday, dropped the prices of coffee to $1.14 and $1.15 a pound. The cuts were made due to prospects of a new good crop of Columbian coffee beans.

FIVE EMERGENCIES

Treated yesterday at Warren General Hospital were the following persons: Aldon Skinner, RD2, Russell, laceration of the left hand. Jay W. Tome, 56 Locust street, laceration of third finger right hand. Paul Ryberg, 13 Marner street, laceration of scalp. Angelo Dalzuffo, 307 St. Clair St., Bridgeville, Pa., laceration of left knee. Mary Guifre, 910 Pennsylvania avenue, west, laceration of fifth finger right hand.

UNUSUAL ACCIDENT

Jamestown Sun: Snow and ice, accumulated on the roof of the old SS. Peter and Paul's School, Washington and Fifth Street, meant disaster for a car owner who parked his car on the Washington Street side of the school. Bertil Gustavson, 29, of 12 West 22nd Street, told police that snow and ice, cascading from the roof of the building, struck the hood of his 1952 club coupe Monday, crushing the hood of the car. Damage was estimated at $81.50 by Gustavson. Several cars, parked on either side of the coupe, were reported missed entirely by the falling snow. Areas next to the school were marked off and parking banned, until the melting snow has ceased to fall.

FIRE IN HOSPITAL

The Jamestown Fire Department answered a call to Jamestown General Hospital at 9:15 p. m., Monday, when the motor in a refrigerator in the basement steam room short-circuited and burned out. All department apparatus and all working shift men were sent to the scene, according to department operating procedure for hospitals and nursing homes. Hospital Superintendent Mark W. Lyons said the fire drills conducted by Fire Chief Charles R. Dorman during Fire Prevention Month paid off when nurses and other workers blocked off smoke coming up the elevator shaft so it did not rise from the steam room to the first and upper floors. Patients and personnel on upper floors were unaware of the incident until fire trucks arrived at the scene. The minor blaze was extinguished with a carbon dioxide extinguisher. Firemen took the motor from the building and vented smoke from the building. All damage was reported confined to the motor.

Efforts Being Redoubled To Complete Delivery of Holiday Mail on Time Christmas Eve

Postmaster B. S. Knabenshue said today that, while the Warren office and all other post offices in the county still have a tremendous job ahead, efforts are being redoubled to deliver all mail on time and in good condition by Christmas Eve. He points out that by taking a little extra care with your Christmas mailings now, you'll avoid disappointing friends and loved ones at Christmas time. He asked for your cooperation in making sure that your return address and the recipient's address are plainly typed, printed, or written on all labels or Christmas cards. Use zone numbers for large city addresses, and it's a good idea to include an extra mailing label inside your package. Remember that parcel post size and weight limitations vary according to destination; ask about them when you go to the post office to buy stamps, which, incidentally, you should do now.

Speaking about stamps the postmaster said, "Use 3c postage on all Christmas cards. This way they'll be delivered more promptly and forwarded or returned, if necessary, provided you include your name and address on the envelope."

First-class postage on your Christmas cards enable you to include hand-written messages, thus making your Christmas greetings more personal. Furthermore, cards with 3c postage, being first class, get preferential treatment and, probably, earlier delivery.

The postmaster urges that you mail immediately all Christmas cards and packages for distant points; certainly not later than December 10th. Christmas mail for local addresses and nearby points should be started on its way at least a week before Christmas.

Labels which read "All For Out-of-Town Delivery" and "All for Local Delivery" are being distributed to all patrons by carriers and to post office boxes. Separate your cards into "In-Town" and "Out-of-Town" bundles, tie them securely, and identify them by the proper label. And, if you do mail "2c cards," bundle these separately as they will be deposited and handled separately at the post office.

The cooperation of all business firms is requested, whereby they will either mail immediately all greetings, calendars, etc. or postpone their mailing until after Christmas. Also, all business mailers are being asked to use large, business-type envelopes at this time to assure preferential handling for that type of mail.

The postmaster expressed his thanks for the excellent response to his "Mail Early" appeals to date but warns that only by stepping up all mailing of Christmas packages and cards immediately can the record mail load be processed and delivered on time.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM TROUTMAN

Roberta Leave, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Leave of Warren, became the bride of William Troutman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Troutman of Sheffield, in a double ring ceremony performed at 7:00 p. m. Saturday, November 24, in St. Paul's Lutheran church.

The Rev. V. Theodore Benson, assistant pastor of First Lutheran church, officiated for the ceremony and Mrs. Albert Anderson was at the organ for the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a street length dress of an orchid shade, with matching accessories and a shoulder orchid.

As matron of honor for her sister, Mrs. Marilyn Jenkins wore white accessories and a corsage of white roses with an orchid colored frock.

Allen Troutman served his brother as best man.

Wearing corsages of white mums, Mrs. Leave wore brown and beige. Mrs. Troutman was attired in gray.

The reception followed in the church parlors, with appointments for the bride's table featuring white and orchid mums. The guest list of 50 persons included relatives and friends from Sheffield, Titusville, Kinzua, Kane and Hazelhurst.

Following a southern wedding trip, the newlyweds will reside in Sheffield.

The bride is a graduate of Warren High School and is employed by Sunray Products. Mr. Troutman, alumnus of Sheffield High, is an employee of the O'Connors Machine Shop at that place.

Prior to her marriage, the bride was honored with a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. John Troutman and a personal shower for which her sister, Mrs. Jenkins, was hostess.

College News of Interest Locally

Two Warren young people will be participating in the production of the Christmas drama, "A King Is Born," at Indiana State Teachers College at 2:30 and 8:00 p. m. Sunday, December 9, in Fisher Auditorium. They are Patricia Ann Larson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester C. Larson of 104 Sixth avenue, and Beverly Mathis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Mathis of 215 Madison avenue.

Miss Larson, senior in the music department, is a member of the College Choir, and Music Educators' Club. She will play the part of Mary in the drama.

Miss Mathis, sophomore in the same department, is a member of Delta Omicron, the Methodist Club, and College Choir. She will be singing in the choir for the presentation.

Michael Sedlack, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sedlack, Sr., of Spring Creek RD 1, has been initiated into Delta Nu Alpha, national transportation fraternity, at Pennsylvania State University. Sedlack is a senior in business administration.

From behind banks of Christmas trees in Ford Memorial Chapel in Meadville on December 8-9, the Allegheny College Singers, 65-voice cappella choir, will be presenting their 27th annual Christmas concert. Dr. Morten J. Luvaas, founder and director of the singers, will conduct. Associated with the Singers, and heard from the balcony, will be the 52-voice, all-gal Allegheny Chapel Choir, directed by W. S. Wright North. The public is invited to the Sunday afternoon concert, with tickets priced at 75 cents.

Wives, Remember: Men Are Sensitive About Age, Too

MEN hate to grow old every bit as much as women do. But you wouldn't think it, the way some wives constantly make remarks that call attention to their husband's age.

Who doesn't know the wife who is always reminding her husband in front of others that he isn't as young as he used to be? Who doesn't know the wife who thinks her husband's baldness is something to kid about? And he is supposed to laugh with the rest when she has her little joke at the expense of his receding hairline.

Who doesn't know the wife who thinks it is her duty to remind George that they had better be leaving the party? It's because, of course, poor old George just can't stay up late the way he could when he was younger.

MOST HUSBANDS ARE MORE GALLANT

WOMEN struggle hard to look as young as they can and they are usually pretty coy about their ages.

Most husbands know the score and never, never say anything to make a wife feel she is growing old. They are even gallant enough to keep reassuring a wife that she is even prettier than she was the day they were married. This is not because she is, but because it is a pleasant and harmless bit of illusion to tell her so.

Why aren't wives as gallant toward their husbands? All it takes is a little tact to make a man feel young instead of old. Why should a wife ever make a husband feel old when it means so much to her to have him make her feel young?

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS

Following a short business session at 8:00 p. m. Wednesday to St. Joseph's Hall, members of Court Warren, Catholic Daughters of America, will enjoy their annual Christmas function. Members are reminded to bring their gifts to be sent to Cannondale, their silver offering for the Benediction Sisters, and 50-cent articles for the gift exchange. Program feature will be an appearance of the Warren High School Choralists, and, to conclude, refreshments will be served by Mrs. Ross Ruhlman, Mrs. Leo Turner and their committee.

CHURCH SUPPER

A sauerkraut supper will be served Wednesday from 5:30 to 7:00 p. m. by the Men's Association of First Presbyterian church, in the church dining room. Tickets may be secured at the church office, B & B Smoke Shop, or from members of the association. Proceeds will be used to send a delegate to the Eastern Area Presbyterian Men's Conference in New York City.

OPEN HOUSE IS SUCCESSFUL EVENT

The open house held by Calvary Baptist Sunday School proved a delightful and successful affair, with nearly 100 visitors signing the guest book.

Guests were met at the door by Pastor and Mrs. Paul Obinger, the superintendent, Mrs. Carl Elmquist, and the church vice chairman, C. O. Swanson, and were taken in charge by the guides, Phyllis Small, Florence Danielson, Harold Swanson, Esther Shellin, Edith Haglund and Myrtle Confer.

Following the tour through the various departments, where teachers and superintendents displayed handwork and literature, guests were returned to the social rooms for refreshments and fellowship.

Janet Ahlgren was general chairman for the affair, Evelyn Hagstrom's women's class had charge of refreshments, Delores Brown and Joan Carlson managed the guest book. A special feature was distribution of special bulletins containing interesting data about the Sunday school, prepared by the promotional staff.

SUCCESSFUL TRIO

Friends of Mrs. Gerald Leonard of Hancock, N. Y., the former Helen Berg of Chancellors Valley, will be interested in an item of hunting news just received here. Mrs. Leonard was successful in bagging a seven-pointer November 18, her husband shot a six-point deer the same week, and their nephew, James Damburg, brought down an eight-point buck. The kills, all weighing 140 pounds, were shot in the vicinity of Apex, Delaware county, N. Y.

Second Bean Supper at YM Proves Delightful Occasion

The second Bean Supper held at the YMCA Saturday, sponsored by the Warren Gra-Y Council for members of all Gra-Y groups in the area including Warren, North Warren and Sugar Grove, was enjoyed by over 70 dads and lads.

Dick Bove, radio announcer, served as master of ceremonies and kept the program moving right along with his easy manner and quiet wit. Paul Mutzabaugh, advisor of the East Street Gra-Y, offered the invocation. Jim Wright, song leader, led the group in several songs, with Paul Peed at the piano.

Mr. Bove introduced the following Gra-Y advisors from all the area schools in Warren Gra-Y Council: Dave Olson and Dan Doherty, Jefferson; Dan Stimmiel, McClintock; Harry Tourtelott, Home Street; Ronald Howard, Lacy; Clyde Loomis, North Warren; Ted Allenson, Malcolm and LaVerne DeVore, Sugar Grove, as well as Pat Madden and Clyde Baker, life guards at Warren YMCA.

Trophies for the track and swim meets were presented by Jeff Riedel, Boys' Director, to David Lundahl and Tom Smith, two "up and coming" athletes from Jefferson School.

Dan Stimmiel, advisor of McClintock School Gra-Y Club, presented the "surprise prize" to the boy who came closest to guessing its contents, who was Bobby Johnson, a member of the Jefferson School Gra-Y. He received a flashlight in the form of an old fashioned lantern.

Featured entertainer of the evening was Albert Fox, cartoonist, who kept the group highly amused and amazed at his humorous and skillful antics with flourish pen and board.

The delicious banquet, with Boston baked beans featured, was served by the following mothers of the Gra-Y boys, Mrs. Allen Anderson, Mrs. Jack Giddens, Mrs. LaVerne DeVore, Mrs. Hale and Joyce Giddens.

Dads and lads participated in games directed by Dan Doherty, Gra-Y director from Jefferson Street school, in the gym period which followed the program and preceded a dip in the pool supervised by Paul Mutzabaugh, of East Street school, Pat Madden and Clyde Baker.

Gra-Y Council wishes to express its appreciation to the N. K. Wendelboe Company for providing the surprise award, and to the many kind people whose time and efforts made this program possible.

The next Bean Supper will be held during Father-Son-Week February 23, and will be anticipated with pleasure by the lads and dads who attended this supper.

Reynoldsville Couple Both Employed Locally

First Baptist church in Reynoldsville was the scene of a pretty wedding November 18, when the Rev. C. Ellsworth Depew united in marriage two young people of that community, both employed in Warren.

The bride was Sondra Arlene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rea, Jr.; the bridegroom, Jacob C. Knisely, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Knisely, Sr.

The double ring ceremony took place before an altar decorated with white mums and pink carnations. Judy Humphrey was at the organ and accompanied Mrs. Alice Kuhns, who sang "I Love You Truly," "The Wedding Prayer," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in floor length white nylon lace over taffeta. Her fingertip veil of nylon tulle fell from a satin headband and her bouquet of white roses and ivy was centered with an orchid.

Her maid of honor, Vera Haines, wore pink net and lace over taffeta and carried pink carnations and ivy.

James Mulholland was best man; ushers were Richard Rea, cousin of the bride, and Garry Knisely, brother of the bridegroom.

Both mothers were attired in brown, Mrs. Rea choosing pink accessories and matching rosebuds, Mrs. Knisely having beige accessories and yellow rosebuds.

A reception for 125 guests followed at the bride's home, where aides were Mrs. Bonnie Engle, Mrs. Mary Lou Mulholland, Judy Mulholland, Jean Johnston, Doris Humphrey and Wanda Huber; managing the guest book were Myra Rea and Nancy Depew.

For a southern wedding trip, the bride chose a dress of smoky red silk, black accessories, and the orchid from her bouquet.

The bride was graduated from Reynoldsville-Winslow Joint High School in 1955 and from DuBois Business College in '56. The bridegroom, alumnus of the same high school in '54, served two years in the Marine Corps. Both are employed locally, the bride in the office at Penn Furnace and Iron, the bridegroom by Industrial Oil Corp.

Pre-nuptial affairs were given by Mrs. Russell Gardner, Mrs. James Mulholland and Judy Mulholland; a luncheon by Penn Furnace office girls.

READING CLUB HAS CHRISTMAS FUNCTION

Sugar Grove—The annual Christmas party of the Reading Club was held in the school cafeteria, with dinner served at six o'clock at tables made lovely with Christmas greens and candles. On the dinner committee were Mrs. Conrad Youngberg, Mrs. Eugene Anderson and Mrs. Arthur Cody; Flossie Broughton offered the table prayer, and the group sang "Happy Birthday" to Mrs. Cody.

Miss Broughton and Mrs. Harold Landin were in charge of the program, with the table quiz going to Mrs. Scott Stuart, Jr., and gifts distributed by Santa Claus. Miss Broughton read the Christmas Story from Luke; Mrs. Howard Curtis and Mrs. Norman Abbott sang a duet, with Mrs. Darwin Curtis at the piano; Mrs. Landin led a group of articles of Christmas in Other Lands, with Mrs. Curtis as accompanist. The 25 person in attendance then enjoyed a group of contests to conclude the delightful affair.

Civic Orchestra Shares Recipe for Enjoyment

When a cook finds a good recipe, she wants her whole circle of friends to sample it. In this, she is on a par with the Warren Civic Orchestra, which wants its friends to sample some of the most perfectly-balanced musical fare, as well as instrumentation is concerned, that has yet been achieved in its six-year history.

The flute and reed section is the newest since the orchestra was started; the brass section has never produced a more satisfying one; the string group is showing that six seasons of concentrated effort can produce.

The Civic Orchestra is a truly inspiring example of what can be achieved by a group of musical adults under a capable leader. About half of the group picked up their instruments for the first time in years when the orchestra held its first rehearsal six years ago. Anyone who can play an instrument is welcome to join the players and will find there relaxation and inspiration really worth while.

The two concerts the orchestra gives each season are not the true aim of the organization, but do show the folks of Warren progress made in past months and offer opportunity for enjoyment of music as each individual enjoys it through the orchestra.

For these self-evident reasons, the orchestra personnel asks that all friends save Sunday afternoon, December 9, for the informal concert to be played in Beaty Junior High School auditorium. As usual, there will be no tickets of admission, but a voluntary offering will be received.

Clarendon EUB Groups Plan Holiday Projects

Clarendon—Among busy church groups in town are the several organizations of the EUB church, which report meetings and coming activities as follows:

True Blue Sunday School Class will hold its annual Christmas party December 11, with dinner at the Anderson Sisters in Pittsfield and the remainder of the evening at the parsonage. Mrs. Dorothy Lundgren will be hostess and there will be a gift exchange.

At the last regular meeting of this group, held at the home of Mrs. Clayton Larson in Warren, President Ann Lutes opened the session with prayer and the remainder of the evening was enjoyed socially.

Ladies Aid Society, in conjunction with the church Brotherhood, will hold its annual Christmas party the evening of December 14, with a dinner, program sponsored by the men, and a gift exchange.

Thrift Club will have dinner and an evening party at the home of Gertrude Benson on December 13, also with an exchange of gifts.

WSWS members held their monthly meeting in the church, Mrs. Nellie Meddock opening the meeting with singing of the Doxology, and prayer by Mrs. Beulah Henry. An interesting program of readings included a dialog by Bob Putnam, Janet Schmolski and Abigail Putnam; a vocal solo by Mrs. Ann Lutes; and missionary facts stressing the value of this enterprise.

The annual thankoffering was received and amounted to $100. Many of those present expressed their thanks for blessings bestowed upon them during the past year. At the close of the meeting, all were invited to the basement, where refreshments were served from a table prettily decorated in Thanksgiving designs.

Convention Calls Upon Pres. Eisenhower To Appoint Penn'a Woman to Post in Government

"Every Citizen has a Political Responsibility" was the theme of the 34th annual convention of the Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women held at the Penn-Sheraton Hotel, Pittsburgh.

The program designed to further the candidacies of women in the ranks of the Republican Party was a thinly clad warning that the women are out to take more important roles in politics.

Emphasis was exerted by some 1,200 women from all over the state when a resolution was passed unanimously by the convention which would call upon President Eisenhower to appoint some prominent Pennsylvania woman to an important position in the federal government.

Mrs. George Hemphill of Beaver County, a vice president of the Council, who sponsored the resolution said: "President Eisenhower wanted a modern Republican Party with a new look. Who is more modern than a woman, and who likes a new look better than a woman or can contribute more to it?" Figures were cited to show that there are 1,381,000 more women than men in the United States and that women cast 51 per cent of the vote.

The theme of Women's participation in political life was supported by several male speakers, including George I. Bloom, G.O.P. State Chairman of Pennsylvania, and who said when asked if he thought women should have a share in the policy making of the party, "Women vote in the state within 27,000 of the men, they have a right to make policy on the state and county level."

The Council also went on record as endorsing wholeheartedly the platform of the Republican Party unanimously adopted at the 1956 Republican National convention.

Among the recommendations made were:

That the election code be modernized to provide absentee balloting. That electors who have changed their residence from one election district to another during a certain period be allowed to vote in the election district in which they are registered. That serious consideration be given to a constitutional amendment making the office of Attorney General elective.

The convention re-elected the slate of officers which led the Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women this past year. It includes the following officers: President, Mrs. William Martindale, Harrisburg, recording secretary, Miss Kathleen E. Flynn, Ridgway; corresponding secretary, Mrs. A. Flower Gluck, Frackville; treasurer, Mrs. Ralph M. Chantler, Butler.

Mrs. Martindale, president, in accepting the office said: "We have a gift to offer the people of the United States in good leadership. Americans, luckily, are becoming more selective about their political candidates. Today they demand good candidates who will represent them creditably."

Delegates representing the local Council were Miss Rieder, president and Mrs. Marion Davis, membership chairman; from the Warren County Republican Committee, Sunny Lucia, vice chairman.

These delegates participated in

A March wedding is planned by Betty Erickson, daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Ahlgren of 623 Conewango avenue, whose engagement to Kenneth E. Carlson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Carlson of 15 Orchard street, has been announced. Both young people are WHS graduates and Struthers Wells employees.

Members of a porpoise school communicate by whistling.

the convention program. Miss Lucia was a member of a panel discussion board, while at the Friday morning session Mrs. Davis led the salute to the flag, and Miss Rieder served on the election board of the convention.

It was revealed during the Membership Honor Parade that 12,000 new members had been added to the Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women in the past year bringing the total membership to 57,225 members.

The Warren Council was named the largest Council at the close of the fiscal year and was credited with the largest membership increase in the Council.

Mina Rieder, local president, was awarded a convention trip with all expenses paid and the Council Medal; Marion Davis received a Council desk pen set as membership chairman having the greatest increase.

Seen in and around the convention was Robert Kent, state treasurer elect, Charles Smith, newly elected auditor general, George I. Bloom, Chairman, Republican State Committee and Senator Edward Martin.

"Magic in Color" Firemen's Auxiliary At Is Program Theme Of Utility Speaker Russell Plans Projects

At the December meeting of Woman's Club Community Service Department Monday afternoon, Norman Huck, of the Bell Telephone Company, presented Miss Claire Tressell, public relations representative for his firm in western Pennsylvania.

Miss Tressell, graduate of the School of Literature, Science, and the Arts at University of Michigan has traveled extensively over Central and South America, and has just returned from a tour of the British Isles and Ireland.

In her most interesting talk on "Magic in Color", she stated "there is little in the world around us that exerts stronger influence than color. From the earliest times, the human race has unconsciously identified objects by color."

Miss Tressell traced development of color, beginning with Newton's discoveries, from the viewpoint of the physicist, who sees color in light; the chemist, who produces color from pigment of the earth; the physiologist, who interprets color in relation to the eyes and how it is seen; and the psychologist who deals with emotional reaction to color.

She pointed out how "seeing is not always believing" and gave some very surprising examples. Her talk was concluded with illustrations of color in industry and how the telephone company has made use of it indoors and out.

Following the program, tea was served by the hostess, Mrs. B. W. Bloom, with Mrs. Roy Hertz and Mrs. W. R. Sedwick pouring.

The December 10 club meeting will be a Christmas program presented by the Drama Department, Mrs. W. H. Wright giving a reading, accompanied by music supplied by Richard A. Sides, and Mrs. Francis Ericsson singing seasonal numbers.

Russell—Thirty members and four visitors were in attendance for the regular meeting of the Firemen's Auxiliary, held in the fire hall. Mrs. Paul Lundell, presiding, opened the session with all repeating the Lord's Prayer.

It was reported plans are complete for serving a supper Thursday evening to a group of Bell Telephone people; and members voted to serve another Bell group on December 15.

Members decided to ask the firemen to trim the community tree and Mrs. Elmer Roberts was named chairman to plan a treat for the children at the tree on December 19. In case of bad weather on that date, the gathering will be held in the fire hall.

Mrs. Clair Gage, Mrs. Richard Miller, Mrs. Theodore Fox and Mrs. Ralph Walker were appointed as a committee to remember shut-ins at Christmas-time.

A donation of $25 was voted to the Ed Stokes Fund.

Following the meeting, Mrs. Pauline Eash gave a hair-styling demonstration and style show, with the following taking part: Mrs. Mary Wall, Mrs. George Hedges, Mrs. Harold Holcomb, Mrs. Lorraine Foster, Grace Foster, Mrs. Glen Anderson, Mrs. Nick Manelick and Mrs. Arnold Jewell. A rising vote of thanks was given all participants.

Next meeting of the group will be the Christmas party January 2, with each one bringing a 50-cent gift for exchange.

IN APPRECIATION
I sincerely wish to thank all those who sent cards, flowers, for their prayers and many kindnesses shown me while I was in the hospital. I also wish to extend my thanks to the nurses and doctors for their many kindnesses.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Wm. (Inez) McCarthy.

North Warren Auxiliary Raising Pneolator Fund

Members of the North Warren Firemen's Auxiliary will hold their regular meeting in the fire hall at eight o'clock this evening, when further plans will be made for the series of dances being held for the benefit of the Pneolator Fund.

With a goal of $400 and receipts to date of $180.08, the auxiliary is anxious to have a large turnout for the next dance, scheduled for Saturday, December 15.

VanTassel's music has been engaged for round and square dancing. Les Akeley is caller for the square dances, and free refreshments are donated by the auxiliary members. There is also a special turkey award for the party, with tickets donated by Sunray Electric Products of North Warren and these proceeds also going into the Pneolator Fund.

Hospital Alumni Group Enjoys Christmas Party

A very lovely Christmas party was enjoyed by Warren General Hospital Alumni Association Monday evening, when members gathered in the Warren County Dairy social rooms.

A bountiful tureen dinner, with turkey, stuffing, biscuits and gravy, was served at 6:30 o'clock at tables decorated in keeping with the holiday season.

Miss Dorothy Kottcamp, president of the Association, introduced the guests, Joseph Williamson, administrator of Warren General Hospital; Mrs. Williamson, and Miss Joanne Ash, director of nurses at Warren General. The president also spoke briefly in outlining highlights of the January meeting.

Following dinner, Christmas carols were sung by the group, and Miss Lucille McLaughlin and Mrs. Leroy Stoddard pleased with several selections. Several humorous Christmas stories were the contribution of Miss Martha Lupold and Miss Pearl Lund.

From a lighted Christmas tree, exchange gifts were distributed, and a social time followed. Among those present were many members from out of town.

Serving as the dinner committee were Mrs. George Frantz, Mrs. Paul Arnold, Mrs. Margaret Ostergard and Miss Jessie Cuthbertson; on the decorating committee were Mrs. Gertrude Babcock, Miss Kottcamp, and Mrs. Emil Erickson.

Hospital Auxiliary Has Timely Announcements

The regular business and sewing session of Warren General Hospital Auxiliary will be held on Friday in the directors' room at the institution.

Those interested in sewing are asked to meet promptly at 1:30 p. m., since Joseph Williamson, hospital administrator, is to show an interesting film on Blue Cross at 2:15.

All members are urgently requested to be present for the business meeting, which will be convened at 3:00 p. m., so that a vote may be taken on proposed plans for opening of the Gift Shop in the hospital lobby.

Officers of the Auxiliary also remind that "donations are in order." Not money, just a Christmas ornament or two from anyone who can spare them. Holiday decorations were lost in the spring flood and must be replaced this season.

Any tree decorations, old or new, can be utilized effectively by the committee and volunteer helpers who will be decorating trees for the hospital on December 17-18. All are urged to bring their donations of ornaments to the hospital before those dates and all who can are urged to volunteer for the task of tree-trimming.

NORTH WARREN WOMEN
The Women's Association of North Warren Presbyterian church will meet at 8:00 p. m. Thursday in the church basement, when names will be drawn for circle groups for 1957 and officers will be elected. A colored movie, "In the Face of Jeopardy", will be shown, refreshments will be served, and articles from the bazaar will be on sale.

ENGLEHART-PERRYMAN MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED

Connecticut's Calculating Lady

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Correspondent

HARTFORD, Conn.—(NEA)—Elaine Bordua was a whiz at mathematics and graduated with honors from Cathedral High School in Springfield, Mass., when she was only 16.

So it's hardly a surprise to find her working as an engineering staff assistant at the Hamilton Standard Division of the United Aircraft Corp. in Hartford.

She works closely with some 40 to 50 engineers each day on manpower requirements, statistics, appropriations and schedules.

Elaine was so young when she was graduated from high school that she was forced to wait until her 17th birthday before she could be hired for a full-time job in the statistical department of an insurance company.

That was in 1932. A year later, after having completed several engineering math courses at Hillier College, she went to work at Pratt & Whitney as a cartographer. She later was promoted to engineering aide and did analytical and blueprint work. Still later she was transferred to the P & W Atomic Research plant where she worked as a computer.

In June, 1954, she went to work at Hamilton Standard as an engineering aide in the aerodynamic department, analyzing test data from engineers. She did such an efficient job that a year later she was promoted to her present job.

How does it feel to work around so many male engineers? "Just fine," says Elaine. "I enjoy my work, and like engineers, so I get along quite nicely."

Elaine's lovely blonde hair was a natural for shampoo advertisement.

This pretty young lady with a slide rule is 24-year-old Elaine Bordua of South Windsor, Conn. A former professional model and singer, Elaine now works as an engineer's assistant.

ments when she was 13, and some of the ads for which she posed still are being used today. She did some other modeling, too, and even had a turn at singing professionally.

She is quick to point out that she wasn't much of a singer. "I just like to sing a bit," she says with a smile.

Skiing is her No. 1 hobby, says Elaine. "We ski mostly at Mount Mansfield up at Stowe, Vt. This year I'm planning a ski vacation in Switzerland and Austria, and I'm really looking forward to it." "I also enjoy water skiing and tennis, and when I'm at home for an evening without a good book, I like to knit. I also love all spectator sports."

How about romance? "I don't have a steady boy friend, but I do have a few dates—with engineers, of course," she says. "I like engineers."

And how does she like her work? "Why haven't you guessed? I love it!"

SALEM LADIES AID

Ladies Aid members of Salem Evangelical United Brethren church will meet at 2:00 p. m. Wednesday in the church parlors. Mrs. Florine Larson will be hostess, and a large turnout is hoped for.

PLEASANT PTA

The regular meeting of Pleasant Township PTA will be held tonight at 8:00 o'clock, when guest speaker will be Sallie Weiler, Warren County Youth Ambassador, on the subject "Life in Holland". A large attendance is urged.

LANDER

Lander—Among students home from college for the holiday period were Jane Burgett and a roommate, Rosalie Mueller, from Thiel College; Shirley Stanton, Edinboro State Teachers' College; Betsy Firth, Indiana State Teachers' College; Tom Firth, Slippery Rock; Leslie Firth and Norman Van Ord, Penn State.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shaffer have been Mr. and Mrs. Ward Peterson and family, Buffalo. Sunday guests were Mr. and Mrs. David Miller, Jamestown.

KIWANIS SPEAKER

Ernie Prudum, who spent some 20 years in the Panama Canal Zone and is now with Sylvania, will relate some of his experiences when he appears as speaker for the Wednesday luncheon-meeting of Kiwanis Club. He will be presented to the group by Merle Kremer. Kiwanians are also reminded to make reservations early for the Ladies' Day at noon December 19.

A CHRISTMAS CONSPIRACY VIA PAA

A conspiracy to maintain childhood faith in Santa Claus is offered again this year by Pan American World Airways, your Warren Post Office, and the Warren County Motor Club.

This deep-dyed plot to maintain the illusions of the young produces a letter signed personally by Santa Claus bearing a special cancellation post mark "North Pole Station, Fairbanks, Alaska," nearest post office to the North Pole.

Last year 100,000 children found such letters in their mail boxes just before Christmas; over 200 of them in Warren.

Tens of thousands of parents fell in with the plot. But also kindly people all over the country saw it as a way to bring cheer to children and adults whose Christmases were a little on the short side.

A Philadelphian obtained the names of 200 youngsters in the poorer section of town and wrote each a cheerful letter. A nurse in a California home for the aged surprised all of her patients with a personal greeting from St. Nick.

Here's how to go about enlivening the Christmas season for young or old:

1. Writing paper and envelopes with the Santa Claus imprint are available at the Warren County Motor Club, 201 Pennsylvania Avenue, West. It's free: just go and get it.

2. Write the letter on the stationery and sign it Santa Claus. A word of warning here: The promises are your own.

3. Put the letter in the envelope and address it to your offspring, or if you have none, to the one next door. Don't forget to put a 6-cent airmail stamp on it.

4. Return the letter to the Warren County Motor Club who will forward it to Alaska for mailing. Your letter should be in their hands by Dec. 15.

And, just about Christmas time somebody is going to be made very happy by a personal note from Santa Claus.

REMINDER TO DEER HUNTERS

An estimated half million persons are hunting antlered deer in Pennsylvania. Many of these are experienced with firearms and big game hunting. Others are on their first deer hunting trip. As always, some have had no training in safe firearms handling. Regardless of training or experience, it is recommended that all deer hunters soberly reflect on the reminders:

A gun is not dangerous until the person handling it makes it so.

Safe hunting requires control of the emotions and a sense of responsibility.

Deer hunting demands common sense procedures. No chances with human safety should be taken.

A buck is not so important that anyone's life should be endangered.

There should never be any "guess" shooting—at movement or sound in the brush.

The responsible sportsman makes SURE it's a legal buck, nothing else, before he fires.

When hunting is enjoyed in a safe, sensible way, the sportsman returns home safe—and he allows the other fellow to do the same.

JAYCEE PROJECT

Of interest to everyone in the community is the announcement that the local Chapter is planning as part of its observance of National Jaycee Week, January 19 to 26, to present a Distinguished Service Award key to Warren's outstanding young man. As has already been announced, the choice will be made by a committee of local citizens who will make the selection from nominations made by the general public. It is also important to remind that any young man, aged 21 to 35, is eligible to receive the honor, and he need not be a member of the Jaycees. Leadership and service to the town during the calendar year are qualities upon which a selection is made. Anyone can submit a nomination, and your cooperation will be much appreciated.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.—I Cor. 15:44.

For of the soul the body form doth take,
For soul is form, and doth the body make.—Spenser.

Opportunity Knocked

Here and There

Since three weeks from today will be Christmas it would seem that it is not too early to start reminding of the importance of providing every safeguard to avert fires and accidents during the holiday season. A folder just received from the National Board of Fire Underwriters, on the subject of "How to Keep Your Christmas Merry," contains pertinent and valuable suggestions. It says there are two things to remember about your Christmas tree—one, it is very combustible, being filled with pitch and resin, it ignites easily and burns furiously; and, two, care and caution are necessary to keep your Christmas tree safe—and your Christmas Merry. It is noted that it is virtually impossible for a non-skilled person to flame-proof a Christmas tree successfully with chemicals or paints. Your best bet for Christmas safety is to follow these common-sense rules—rules which have been developed by engineers for the Board of Underwriters: Choose a small tree instead of a large one. A small tree can be just as pretty and it's less of a hazard. Don't set up the tree until just a few days before Christmas. Keep the tree outdoors until ready to install it. Set up the tree in the coolest part of the house, away from radiators, heaters or fireplaces. Stand it in water, which retards the drying out process. Do not use cotton or paper for decorating the tree unless the decorations are flameproof. Do not place electric lights around the tree. Never use candles. Use electric lighting sets only. Inspect every socket and wire to make sure the set is in good condition. Discard sets with frayed wiring. When buying new sets, look for the Underwriters' Laboratories, Inc. label or marker. Provide a switch some distance from the tree for turning tree lights off and on. Use flameproof or fireproof decorations of glass or metal to decorate your tree. Remove gift wrappings promptly after gifts have been opened. Don't leave lights burning when no one is in the house. From time to time, inspect the tree and see whether any of the needles near the lights have started to turn brown. If so, change the position of the lights. When needles start falling, take the tree down and discard it outdoors.

On subjects pertaining to the Christmas season here's an article reprinted from The Evening Mirror of December 4, 1956, entitled "The Chrysanthemum," which makes timely reading: "In contemplating the events of the past 25 years in the horticultural world, says a writer, one is struck with the rapid and almost wonderful advances that have taken place, and this is perhaps more true of the chrysanthemum than any other flower. Away back in the sixties a few varieties were all that were required. It was not known until early in the eighties that the great impetus which has brought the chrysanthemum so rapidly to the front as a decorative flower, was given. In 1862, the first Japanese maples were imported into this country, and under watchful eyes and skillful hands, they were cared for, and in the fall of that year they produced flowers which exceeded in beauty the doubted illustrations, and created a great sensation. The cultivation of these first plants for sale and exhibition brought out their good qualities and created a demand for fine stock that encouraged the growers to greater efforts, and new varieties began to appear. Cross fertilization was resorted to and the result of the chrysanthemum boom is seen today in the great variety of flowers grown in all parts of the country. Blooming at a season when other flowers are dead, has had much to do with the success that has attended the development of the chrysanthemum."

Hungarian Refugees Arrive
At a Propitious Time

BY DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—A small green card sandwiched between two pieces of transparent plastic is their free ticket to a future unlimited.

That's what the Hungarian refugees fleeing from Russian tyranny and permitted to enter the U.S. by action of the President are handed when they finish the formal red tape of entry. It's called an alien registration card.

There are no strings attached to this free pass to partake in the bounties of America. Only a letter is necessary to the U.S. Immigration Service once a year, in January, reporting the current address.

THE LAW REQUIRES these Hungarian refugees to wait five years before they can apply for citizenship. During this period they can actually spend half their time outside of the country if business or personal reasons make this necessary. During this traveling they must keep the Immigration Service informed of their activities.

After five years they make an application for permission to file a formal petition for citizenship. It takes two or more months for the Immigration Service to check this application. The applicant has spent a long enough time in the country and whether his travels abroad have been properly reported. Next it is determined whether he has been of good moral character and appears loyal to the principles of democracy.

Finally, the applicant must be able to speak and read a few simple English words, not more than enough to get along on.

THIS IS NO cloak and dagger investigation. It is done as quickly and painlessly as possible by Immigration officials.

When the application is approved the alien is notified. He can then go to any U.S. court and file his formal citizenship petition. All that is required at this procedure is the presence of two citizens who will state that they know the applicant, that he is of sound moral character and that he understands and is loyal to the principles of democracy.

There is then a minimum wait of 30 days before the applicant appears in court for a final hearing, and to take his oath of allegiance to the United States.

Minor children get citizenship with their parents. If the parents do not seek citizenship, the children who were born in Hungary can apply on their own after they come of age.

It is estimated that three-fourths of the Hungarian refugees now entering the U.S. will eventually become citizens. The rest will either be unwilling to give up allegiance to their homeland or will not make the grade or want citizenship.

PROBABLY NO period in American history has been so propitious for the eventual winning of citizenship by these Hungarians. The public has already demonstrated its eagerness to help them get off to a good start by donating money, homes, jobs and even farms.

The agencies helping to locate the Hungarians in homes and in jobs are finding plenty of sympathetic help.

Once the excitement of arriving has worn off, the public has forgotten the dramatic circumstances of their flight and the really tough job of adjusting to a new life in a new country has begun, they also have a bright prospect. The U.S. has never been more prosperous, with job and business opportunities in abundance.

And according to all predictions this situation will continue for many years to come.

It is a good opportunity these people have in America today.

Youngsville Opens Season Tonight Against Dragons

WARREN AFTER SECOND WIN IN ITS FIRST AWAY CONTEST

Youngsville High School will open its cage season tonight at home against the Warren Dragons. The Warren quintet blasted Erie Academy, 60 to 42 in the local season's start Saturday night at Beatty School. The so-so Lions had lost to the Bradford Owls 52-66 in its opener Friday.

Game at Youngsville High school is scheduled to begin at 7:15 p. m. Preliminary between the 'ayves starts at 7 p. m.

Set to see action for the Dragons are "Wink" Rickerson, high scorer of the opening contest; Bill

Dahl, Jim Mohnkern, Dick Danfelson Steven Lindquist, Jack Karosky, Ken Hoffman, Chuck, Still, Ray Bennett, Louis VanBlos, Nick Monroe, Tom Schaeffer.

On the top of the list for starting berths on the Youngsville squad are Jack Brennenman, Don Dinny, Jim Smith, Chuck Barnes, John McCanna.

Biggest Little Town coach is Dick Praetzel with Alan Tubbs assisting. Managers are Larry Rodgers, Glen Johnson, George Brown, Dick McAllister and Bob Spencer.

Youngsville has an open date on Friday. Warren plays Kane at Beatty gymnasium.

Many Athletes To Ask for Political Asylum Down Under

Melbourne (A)—From huddles of Hungarians in the Olympic Village and throughout Melbourne, he word came out today that 15 athletes would ask for political asylum in Australia and upwards of 30 others would never return to their Russian-crushed homeland.

Two officials with the Hungarian Olympic team, who made a reporter swear he would never tell their names, said at least one third of the squad of more than 150 men and women would "somehow, somewhere leave the team" and not return to Budapest.

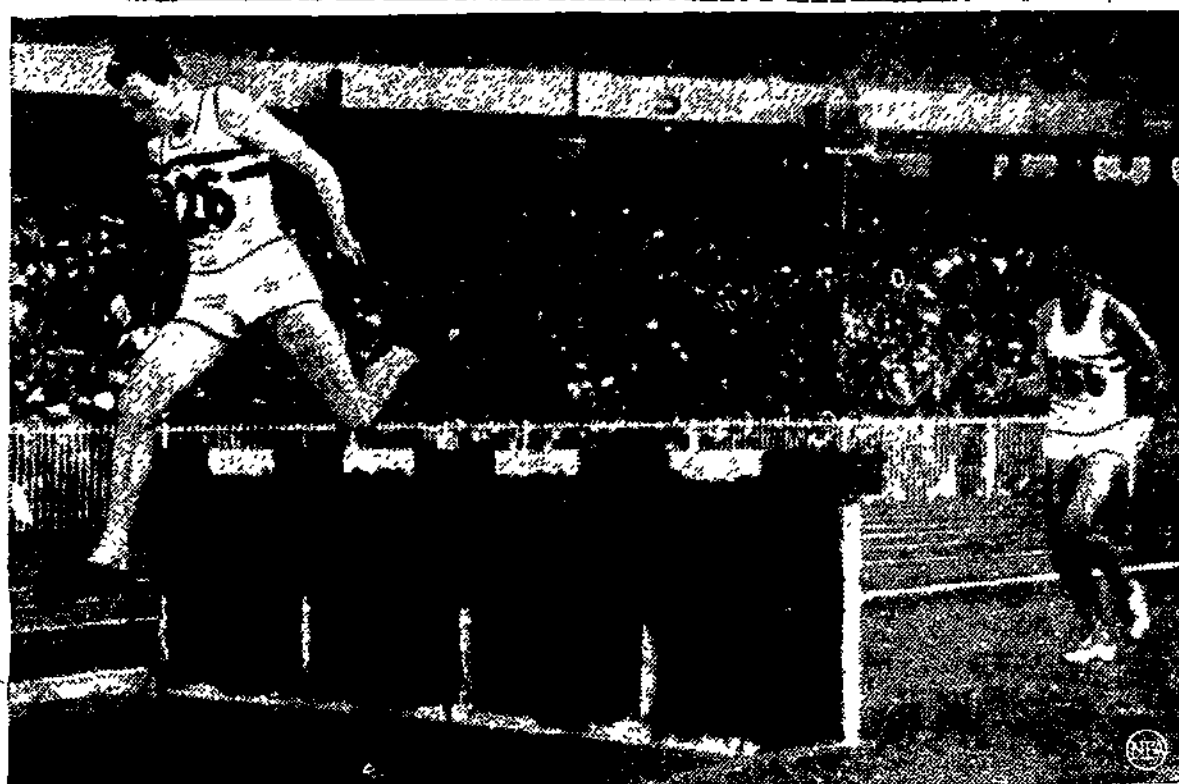

"Between 10 and 15 will leave the Hungarian team within the next few days," one official said. "Between 30 and 45 will stop in Europe."

LEADS HOCKEY SCORERS

New York (A)—Cleveland's high-scoring rookie, Bo Elik, opened a three-point margin on his nearest competitor last week as he boosted his American Hockey League point total to 36. Elik amassed six points during the past week, four on goals to also retain his goal-scoring lead and now has 23. In other departments, Jimmy Moore of Cleveland held his assist leadership with 24, Larry Zeld of Hershey became the penalty leader with 88 minutes served, and Providence's Johnny Bower remained the most stingy goalie with 2.53 goals against average.

CONTROVERSIAL FINISH — Britain's Chris Brasher clears the last water jump on way to the finish line in the 3,000-meter steeplechase at the Olympic Games. He was disqualified for "interference" and Sander Rozsnyoi of Hungary, right, was moved up to first from the runner-up spot. Great Britain appealed and the jury decided no harm had been done and Brasher was reinstated and awarded the gold medal. Brasher's time was 8 minutes, 41.2 seconds.

Former Owner of the Browns Steps Into Challenging Job

By MERCER BAILEY

Jacksonville, Fla. (A)—William O. (Bill) DeWitt, one of the most capable executives in baseball, stepped into one of the game's most challenging jobs today as administrator of the major leagues' $500,000 giveaway program to aid the minors.

The 54-year-old former owner of the St. Louis Browns was selected yesterday by a special major-league committee headed by John Quinn, general manager of the Milwaukee Braves.

He is resigning as assistant general manager of the New York Yankees to administer the fund created by the majors as the first concrete step toward assisting minor league clubs which need money aid.

A flurry of major league actions dominated the opening session of the minor league convention. An eight-player trade between Detroit and Kansas City highlighted off-the-floor activity. And the majors snapped up nine minor league players for a total outlay of $100,000 in the lightest draft since World War II.

The Brooklyn Dodgers—to the surprise of no one—extended Manager Walter Alston's contract for another year, reportedly giving him a $4,000 pay hike to $38,000. And the Cleveland Indians signed fiery Eddie Stanky, former St. Louis Cardinals manager, as a coach.

In the big trade, Detroit got infielders Jim Fagan and Eddie Robinson, pitcher Ed Blake and an undisclosed amount of cash from the Athletics in exchange for pitchers Virgil Trucks, Ned Garver and Gene Host and first baseman Wayne Belardi. Also as part of the deal, the A's agreed to sell right-hander Bill Harrington, 3-5 at Columbus last season, to the Tigers' Charleston farm club. The majors' aid-to-the-minors program can't begin immediately.

Pat McCormick In Pursuit of Second Olympic Swim Title

Melbourne (A)—Mrs. Pat McCormick began her pursuit of a second consecutive Olympic diving "double" tonight by winning the women's springboard event. But it was one of the few bright moments for the United States as Russia continued to carve into America's team lead in the unofficial point standing.

Mrs. McCormick, the young mother from Lakewood, Calif., was a clear winner in defending her 1952 championship and now only the high diving event remains for the completion of her unprecedented "double double."

Her gold medal, however, was the only one gained by the United States today while Russia added two in shooting, winning two events in which America failed to place. With 29 gold medals for the Games, the U. S. team now has 490 points to 450½ for Russia, which has won 20 gold medals.

Little Jeanne Stunyo, a University of Detroit coed from Gary, Ind., gave the United States a 1-2 finish in the women's diving event. But Canada's Irene McDonald prevented a sweep by edging Barbara Gilders of Detroit for third place.

Australia's Murray Rose won the other swimming gold medal to be decided, cracking the men's 400-meter free style Olympic record in 4:27.3. Takeshi Yamamaka of Japan was second with George Breen of Buffalo, N. Y., third. The old record of 4:30.7 was set in 1952 by Jean Boiteaux of France.

Russia won the running deer shooting with Vitalii Romanenko and the small bore rifle competition with Anatoli Bogdanov. The Soviet also battled Japan for the early lead in the men's gymnastic competition while the United States lagged behind.

The only other gold medal to be determined today was won by Hungary, which successfully defended its long-time team saber championship in fencing. Poland was second and Russia third.

Robinson's Latest Pre-Fight Fadeout Irks Jensen Manager

By DON WEISS

New York (A)—Gene Fullmer and Marv Jensen, a discouraged challenger and an agitated manager, had a date with the New York State Athletic Commission today—the two latest victims of Sugar Ray Robinson and his pre-fight maladies.

Robinson came down with a severe cold yesterday, necessitating a postponement of his middleweight title defense against the rugged, young Fullmer from Dec. 12 to Jan. 2 at Madison Square Garden.

It was all in good and legitimate order, including announcement of the findings by a commission physician concerning the champion's condition and inability to fight as scheduled.

But with Robinson, there's always the nagging complication of a past history which reveals something on the order of 25 pre-fight fadeouts, including one a couple years ago that followed the weigh-in at noon on the day of a scheduled bout.

Fullmer and Jensen, who negotiated and waited for upwards of six months to get a fight with the champion, got more notice. But the way Jensen reacted, he could not have been more stunned had Robinson been stricken climbing through the ropes.

The manager from West Jordan, Utah, claimed the title by immediate default, claimed it if Sugar Ray didn't show up at the Garden on the 12th and tore up the current contract and got one with better terms for the challenger.

When advised that the contract, legally signed, included a post-clause if needed, Jensen settled for a plan to visit Chairman Julius Helfand of the commission to claim the $2,000 guarantee Robinson had posted.

While Jensen went around in circles, Robinson was confined to his bed in Riverdale, N. Y.

Mrs. C. L. Knight, 108 Cayuga Avenue, has received word that her sister, Mrs. Mattie Johnson, of Kane, died Monday morning at Prince George Hospital in Maryland. She was the former Mattie Tate, of Warren.

MRS. FRANK MORRIS

Mrs. Grace E. Morris, wife of Frank Morris, who lived in Corry until Nov. 18, 1955, when they went to live at Erie, RD 7, died Sunday evening after a lingering illness.

She was born in Guys Mills on July 8, 1887. She was a member of the Corry First Presbyterian Church and of the Bessemer Locomotive Engineers Auxiliary of Allenton.

Besides her husband, she leaves a son, Wendell Shaw of Erie; a granddaughter, Mrs. Phyllis Zelasky of Erie; a sister, Mrs. O. L. Moore of Titusville, and a brother, Charles Phillips of Warren. Mrs. Edith Hiltner, in Josiua, Calif.

The funeral service will be held in Corry at 2:30 p. m. Thursday.

Rev. Paul F. Bauer will officiate and interment will be in the family lot in Pine Grove Cemetery.

MRS. MINNIE FAULKNER

Services for Mrs. Minnie Faulkner who died Monday noon after a year's illness, will be held Thursday afternoon at 1:30 with Rev. Clifford C. Headland of Russell Methodist church, officiating, and interment following in Laona cemetery.

Mrs. Faulkner was born August 18, 1863 at Laona, N. Y., and had, in recent years, made her home in Corry. She was a member of Russell Methodist church, officiating, and interment following in Laona cemetery.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. John Fernbeck, and a granddaughter, Maxine Hess, both of Corry; a sister, Mrs. Maude Parsons of Brocton, N. Y.; and several nieces and nephews.

MRS. PETER G. JULIANO

Very largely attended services were held at 10:00 a. m. Monday at St. Joseph's church for Mrs. Mary C. Juliano, wife of Peter G. Juliano of 1123 Pennsylvania avenue, west. Father Robert Cohen, deacon, Father Edward Jacob, sub-deacon. Serving as bearers for interment in St. Joseph's cemetery were Joseph A. Sciala, Anthony Sciala, Joseph Papala, Joseph Cantelli, Serafino Ghigotti, and Michael Russo.

Out of town relatives and friends were in attendance from Niles, O.; Jamestown, N. Y.; Kane, Johnsonburg, Bradford, Erie, Sheffield, Chardon, Irvine and Youngsville.

MRS. BLANCHE PHILLIPS

Mrs. Blanche Phillips, aged 84 and sister of Mrs. Myrtle Hodges of Warren, died December 1 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edith Hiltner, in Josiua, Calif.

Mrs. Phillips, who resided in Falconer before going to California in 1936, also leaves a sister, Mrs. Pearl Becker, in Falconer and another sister, Mrs. Jennie Ashley, in Bath, N. Y.; three grandchildren, and seven great-grandchildren; a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Paul Phillips, Jamestown.

Funeral services will be followed by interment in Inglewood, Calif. cemetery.

Funerals

MRS. MINNIE FAULKNER

Friends may call at the Lutz-Verhulst Home beginning at seven o'clock this evening. Funeral services will be held from the funeral home Thursday afternoon at 1:30, with interment following in Laona cemetery.

The U. N. police force in Egypt which is to take over responsibility of maintaining order has grown to nearly 2,600 men and officers.

A Swedish contingent of 108 men and a group of 15 Colombians arrived at Abu Suweir, the transit base. A Yugoslav unit of more than 700 men passed through the buffer zone into the Egyptian side yesterday.

After his visit here tomorrow, Gen. Burns is expected to go on to Jerusalem to discuss with Israeli army representative the withdrawal of Israeli forces from Egypt's Sinai Peninsula and the posting of U. N. troops in that area.

U. S. Lt. General Raymond A. Wheeler, appointed by U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld to advise on clearing the Suez Canal of obstructions, is expected in Egypt next week to make a study of the problem. He is now in the Netherlands conferring with Danish and Dutch salvage contractors.

Times Topics

CUB PACK 48

A special invitation is extended all parents to attend the regular monthly meeting of Cub Pack 48 at East Street School this evening at 7:30. A fine program is planned and Cubbers hope for full family support.

DIVORCE COURT

Judge Alexander C. Flick, Jr., in a Divorce Court session this morning heard two cases charging desertion by Clarence Anderson versus Grace Anderson; and Grace Deutsch Porter versus Paul J. Porter. These more cases will be heard tomorrow.

AUTO MISHAP

Approximately $300 damages were inflicted yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock when a car headed on Market street rammed into a car backing into a parking space. Bernard Briggs, 16, of RD 2, Warren, was pulling into the curb in front of 110 Market street when he was struck by Alvin C. Bean, 19, of Spring Creek. The Bean machine had $250 inflicted, the Briggs machine about $50.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Latest couples to file for wedding licenses at the Register and Recorder office of Gurney Ball were Elizabeth Jane Gustafson and John Raymond Hall, both of Warren; Donald Lester Hargart of Freeport and Rosalyn Mae Davis of Lackawanna; James Levi Spence and Hazel Pearl Sample, both of Randolph, N. Y.; Joseph Vincent Sottile and Margaret Kathleen Gross, both of Westfield.

PRIEST DIES

A solemn Requiem High Mass will be held Thursday in St. Hippolyte's church at Frenchtown, Crawford county, for its pastor, the Rev. Father Joseph L. Kern. Father Kern, 66, a native of Clearfield, died at Spencer Hospital here yesterday following a long illness. Interment will be at Clearfield. Father Kern had been pastor at St. Hippolyte's the past 22 years. Prior to that, he was assistant pastor at St. Anne's R. C. Church, Erie.

FIRE CALL

Borough firemen made a call to the Jerry Groves residence at 219 Eddy street at 5:04 p. m. yesterday when a fire started in the kitchen cabinet. Damage to the premises owned by Doris Campagna was about $150. Cause of the blaze was not determined. The emergency truck rushed the in-halator to 603 Market street about 11:30 o'clock today but the patient, R. Z. Morrison, was pronounced dead soon after the arrival of the firemen.

INAUGURAL SEATS

The following Associated Press dispatch from Washington will interest persons planning to be in the capital for the inauguration next January 21: "Approximately 50,000 seats along the route of the Inaugural Parade next January 21 will cost from $3.50 to $10 each, depending on location, the inaugural committee said today. Applications for tickets must be made on forms available from the Inaugural Committee, 1022 15th street, N. W., Washington 5, on mail applications. There will be a handling charge of $1 on each order."

EMERGENCY LANDING

An expensive four-place private plane flown and owned by Dr. Bert W. Brooks of Upper Montclair, N. J., landed on a farm near Corry Saturday Harold Keyser, also of Upper Montclair, was a passenger. Dr. Brooks said he thought he was near Jamestown because of the Corry-Jamestown Company sign on a factory roof. He said he couldn't see for snow, although he had been assured that the weather was clear between New Jersey and Indianapolis, his destination. In attempting a take-off the plane hit a soft spot in the field and nosed over, bending the propeller. The aviators arranged for repairs then took a commercial flight home from Jamestown.

Sassaron who bagged a 3-pointer. Others bringing home the venison were Paul Slagle, 2 points; Kirk Johnson, 10 points; Glen Rapp, spike; Randall Peterson, 5 points; Mark Giltinan, 4 points; Kelly McCool, 5 points; Roscoe Morrison, 6 points; Denny Steele, 3 points; Dennis Genberg, 4 points; Louis Mascaro, 9 points; Henry Hollobaugh, 4 points; David Downey, spike.

Another successful hunter was Dave Schreffler who brought down his first buck in 18 years of hunting. Dave brought down his 140-pound, 6-point beauty in the Chapel Fork area to become one of the contenders for National Forge "buck pool".

Fifteen-year-old Randall Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Peterson, Stoneham, was one of those bagging number one on opening day. He shot a 5-pointer in back of Green Hill at 10:45 a. m.

Another successful hunter was Henry Higgs, of Dunkirk, N. Y., who bagged an eight-pointer, and was on the way home with his trophy at noon on opening day. Mr. Higgs, who is an unusually successful hunter, is a former Warren resident.

Two other hunters who got lucky at the same time were Curly Sorenson of Cobham Park Road and Dick Zampagna of 2014 North South street. The pair was hunting on the ridge behind Cobham Castle when one deer came sweeping up a path. Sorenson dropped him with a single shot from his .32 and about three minutes later another buck ran down the p. on the opposite direction. Zampagna dropped him. Joseph Whyte of 611 Fifth street bagged himself a 6-pointer on opening day.

Mahany Confident

(From Page One)

GOP State Chairman George I. Bloom persuaded Berger to step aside for the sake of party harmony.

House Republicans will meet tomorrow to set up organization of that chamber over which they won control in the November election.

There seems to be general agreement in the GOP majority for this slate: Rep. Helm (Armstrong), for speaker; Rep. Johnson (McKean), for Republican floor leader; Rep. Gibson (Warren), for Republican whip; Rep. Wood (Lancaster), for caucus secretary; William E. Habbyslaw (Dauphin), for chief clerk at $9,900 a year; and W. W. Waterhouse (Erie), for secretary at $8,200 a year.

pistol, eyewitnesses said, and the women began to scatter. Several shots were fired. The injured woman was hit in the leg. She was placed in an ambulance and driven away.

The women ignored Russian soldiers who tried to push them back. They placed red, white and green bouquets on the large white stone honoring the Hungarian dead of World War I.

It was clear to all who watched that the women were honoring, not the dead of 1914-1918, but the thousands who fell before the Russians in the rebellion of October-November this year, particularly on the black Sunday of Nov. 4.

The demonstration, announced only by leaflets handed out on Budapest streets yesterday, started at 11 a. m.

Singly, in groups, and finally in hundreds, the women converged on the square with their bouquets.

At least two dozen Russian armored cars and scores of Russian soldiers were at the square.

U.S. PLEDGES SUPPORT—The United States has reaffirmed its support for Turkey (1), Iraq (2), Iran (3) and Pakistan (4), members of the Baghdad Pact in their efforts to remain free of Russian influence. In London the acting Turkish Foreign Minister warned Great Britain that it may be necessary for Iraq, supported by Turkey, to invade Syria to prevent that Arab nation from becoming the first Soviet satellite in the Middle East.

Recovery Suit Involves $1,600,000 Union Fund

Chicago (P)—A recovery suit filed yesterday in federal court charges that two officials of the Laundry Workers International Union misappropriated $1,600,000 of the union's health and welfare funds.

The suit names Eugene C. James and John T. Toomey, both of Chicago. James resigned Nov. 17 as international secretary-treasurer, but retains his post as secretary-treasurer of Chicago Local 46. Toomey, one of four international trustees of the health and welfare fund, also is executive secretary of the Chicago Laundry Owners Association.

Three members of San Francisco Local 26 said they filed the suit in behalf of the union's 85,000 members.

Stock Market Prices Continue to Move Ahead

New York (P)—Stock market prices moved ahead in fairly active early trading but some profit-taking was evident.

Pivotal stocks gained fractions to around a point. Some gains exceeded this and there was also a scattering of losses.

Because of the strong rise of the past two sessions, brokers said some profit-taking was in the cards.

They observed, however, that the business and economic picture was generally encouraging and that the situation in the Middle East was more reassuring to Wall Street.

Arizona's rich farm lands produce more revenue than the state's celebrated mines and cattle country together.

High Students Are Busy Planning for Christmas Events

Christmas is in the air in Warren High School, at least from the viewpoint of committees planning for various annual seasonal events.

Plans for the annual Snowball Dance, sponsored by Student Council, are in the hands of the social committee, headed by Patty Ross. The date has been set for December 15, Bill Dobbs and his band will provide the music, and admission will be free.

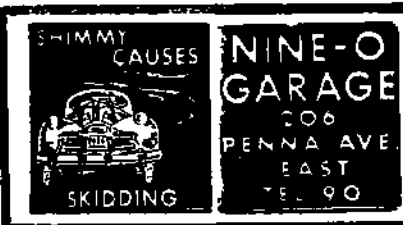

A Christmas dinner for all German students will be held Wednesday, December 12, at the YWCA. Tickets at $2 including chicken and all the trimmings, and pupils to make payments to the class representative as soon as possible.

Spanish Club members will have a Christmas party next Monday evening December 10, with a turban dinner starting promptly at 6:00 o'clock in the school cafeteria. Musical organizations are busy with their seasonal plans, with the WHS Orchestra rehearsing at Beatty for two periods today, and The Chorus and A Cappella Choir preparing their selections.

The Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow examinations were given first period today; the committee for the Y-Teen Sample Fair will meet at 7:30 p. m.

National Honor Society will meet seventh period tomorrow in Room 107, and members are reminded to get permission from seventh period teachers.

Russell Cub Dens Present Puppets At Pack Meeting

Russell—Cub Scouts of Dens 1, 2, 4, 5 and 6 presented puppet shows at the regular Pack meeting held in the fire hall Monday evening. A Webelos and Bobcat ceremony were held and earned awards were presented. Assisting the Cub Scouts were the Den Mothers, Mrs. Joe Rogers, Mrs. Richard Burlingame, Mrs. Chester Anderson, Mrs. Pat Ferrie and Mrs. Edward Voy.

Boys of Den 3 presented their puppets at an earlier meeting with Mrs. Herbert Erickson, Den Mother, supervising.

Boy Scout Troop 14, with 10 members and their leader, Eugene Fogle, camped out over the weekend at the Russell Boy Scout Camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wood, with Mr. and Mrs. Warren Gilson of Warren, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Archie Brown at Sanford celebrating the birthday of their hostess. The Woods, with their son, Tom, and Mr. and Mrs. Brown, have been recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hill at Diamond, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Atkins, Jr., and family have moved into the new house they are building on the Lander road.

Brown's Troop held its regular meeting at the church, making and decorating cookies. The girls are busy selling candy as a money-making project, and with plans for their Christmas party December 19, when Girl Scouts will be guests.

Mrs. Andrew Lindell has been spending a few days at the Delbert Jolley home in Fredonia.

Mrs. Marvin Kelly is home from Warren General Hospital, also Mrs. Gilbert Ludwick and infant son, Dale Arthur.

HAL BOYLE'S COLUMN

By HAL BOYLE

New York (AP)—One test of a man's character is what he does during a traffic jam.

Do you remain a fuming prisoner of the passing moments in such a situation? Or do you—this is the mark of the superior man—employ them for self-improvement and thus score a victory over time?

Inspect a line of motorists in any traffic jam, and what are they doing? The odds are high that the great majority will be (1) futilely blowing their horns, (2) cursing, (3) girl watching, (4) either dozing, listening to their wife, or both.

With the possible exception of girl watching, none of these activities fall into a constructive category. All the rest waste precious time and energy.

One might well ask defensively, "Well, just what do you expect me to do during traffic jams—go through college?"

As a matter of fact, why not? An average of 25 million Americans must waste at least 15 minutes a day in traffic jams. That comes to about 2,251,000,000 lost hours a year. Since a college student spends only about 7,200 hours on his studies in a four-year course, the time wasted by motorists each year in traffic jams would send $16,805 people through college.

Maybe the idea of going through college while your car is stalled doesn't appeal to you. But you can at least study a few correspondence courses on how to get ahead on your job.

You can also even study for a new career while you are endlessly waiting for the car ahead to start. There are some jobs, of course, you can't practice while sitting in a stalled car—such as piano tuning, or, should you yearn to be a lifeguard, the technique of rescuing a drowning person.

On the other hand, there are certain pursuits which can easily be mastered while sitting in a car waiting for the lights to change, e. g., opera singing, clarinet playing, ventriloquism, public speaking, song writing, and cheating at cards.

Traffic jams can also be utilized to improve one's culture. During the 91 hours a year the average man spends in them he can easily read all the books on the best seller list. One man who has to make frequent cab trips across midtown Manhattan said that he went through the Encyclopaedia Britannica in less than two years in this manner.

If one doesn't mind carrying a small bag, it is also easy to follow one's hobby during traffic jams, whether it be stamp collecting, quilting, or making bird cages.

Any guy can get caught in a traffic jam today. But it's the guy who uses this lost time to his own advantage who gets ahead in the battle of life.

Methodist Family Night Very Successful Affair

Sugar Grove—Ninety members of the Methodist church and their families attended the Family Night Harvest Supper at the church, with a ham supper served under the direction of Mrs. Gerald Miller, Mrs. Walter Sweeney and Mrs. Emory Hale. Following the meal, John Binney showed a film, "Stranger in the House."

Mrs. Walter Hodges, a recent bride, was honored guest for a crystal shower given by Mrs. A. A. Grant. Prizes for the evening went to Mrs. Howard Onink, Sandy Snyder and Mrs. Gerald Miller, and refreshments were served by Mrs. Grant, assisted by Mrs. Scott Stuart, Jr., and Mrs. Perry Wilcox. The 30 guests from Jamestown, Falconer, Frewsburg, Lottsville and Sugar Grove remembered the bride with many lovely gifts.

The Rev. Merrill Livezey, Methodist minister, is confined to his home by illness.

Mrs. John Stuart attended the Family Birthday Club gathering held at the home of Mrs. Andrew Johnson at Watts Flats, the affair honoring anniversaries of Mrs. Bert Peterson, Mrs. Edward Peterson and Mrs. Everett Russell.

Leonard Craig, month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Briggs, is a surgical patient in Jamestown General Hospital.

It's a beautiful Christmas for her when you give her the beauty luxuries that delight every woman. Mink need not be expensive even though it is mink. As proof, we offer (upper left) Frince Matchabelli's purse dispenser of perfume in mink-trimmed black faillie case. It's budget-priced too. Great, big, beautiful bottle of cologne by Lucien Lelong (lower left) holds fifteen ounces. Faillon is renaissance in glass and gold. From France comes Tresor (upper right), an elegant perfume in a diamond-cut flacon. Marcel Rochas does dusting powder and bath oil (right center) in matching scent. And from Coty comes dusting powder and matched bath salts in pretty box.
